

THEOSIS STUDIOS' KID'S BULLETIN

OCTOBER 28, 2018 - 23RD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

In today's Gospel reading Jesus helps a man who was bothered by bad spirits. The spirits ran away from Jesus and went into a bunch of pigs. These pigs then ran away and jumped into a lake. Some people were frightened by Jesus and were sad that their pigs were gone, so they told Jesus to go away. The man that Jesus helped however was so happy that he wanted to stay with Jesus wherever He would go. Jesus told him, not to leave his town, but to go tell his family and friends nearby how good God is.

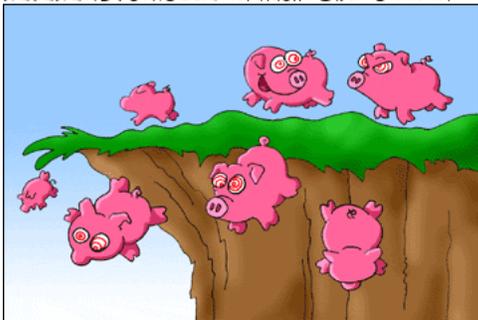

Sometimes we want to go far away to follow Jesus. Often Jesus wants us to help those around us.

Who are some people you can love?
