Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost. Octoechos Tone I. The Holy Apostle James, Son of Alpheus

UCWLC meeting next Sunday after our Fellowship... which is after our Liturgy.

Ping Pong, Pizza and Parley

An Evening for Young Adults (under 40's)

Come on down to Dormition of the Most Holy Mother of God Ukrainian Catholic Church for an evening of board games, foosball, and ping pong. (Fr. Bo is not a great player, so feel free to whoop him.)

We will also have an open discussion on how to make our church(es) really "OUR" church. ie. Young Adult Friendly.

Friday, October 14 at 6:30

Dormition Parish: 15608 - 104 Ave. Edmonton

RSVP: Anthony or Oksana at 306-727-3244

Congratulations to Helen Sirman, our Dormition UCWLC member! Helen was honored at the 27th National Congress, held in Edmonton, September 29th - October 2, 2022. She was awarded Honorary Life Membership, (HLM). Each Eparchial UCWLC proposes an outstanding individual who meets the criteria outlined by the National Executive. Helen was the choice of Edmonton's Eparchial Executive. As an HLM, Helen has all the rights and obligations that are granted to an active member at all levels, with the exception that the HLM is released from paying membership dues. the HLM has the right to attend and participate in discussions, with the right to vote at Eparchial Conventions and National Congresses.

This year, from October 2-8, 2022, marks the fourth annual National Catholic Health Care Week. The Week recognizes the mission of Catholic health care organizations across Canada with a focus on the theme of "Building Bridges" of trust and healing with individuals, families, care teams, communities and our partners in care.

Parish News

- Please pray for several of our parishioners and family members including (but not limited to): Peter, Fr. Terry, Anne, Brody, Rosann, Jennie, Mickey, Kristopher, Greg, Ross, Ron, Jean, Verna, Miranda, Sarah, Ann & Louis.
- Happy birthday to Victor Lirette and Anastasia Ostopowich who celebrate(s) his/her/their birthday(s) this week. May God grant you many happy years. Mnohaya Lita.
- Next Sunday, October 16th, we will resume our after Liturgy fellowships. Thank you to all those who are contributing baking and such. If you would like to help, please speak with our UCWLC.
- Next Sunday, October 16th, our UCWLC will be having their meeting (which was postponed from 2 weeks ago). All women in our parish are welcome to come to the meeting.
- The Parish Council is recruiting a volunteer to act as a Parish Hall Coordinator (PHC). The PHC would be responsible for the opening and closing of the Parish hall during hall rental events. The PHC would also review the condition of the hall for cleanliness and any damage that occurred during the rental period. (Checklist will be provided). The PHC will be required to be available via cellphone to address any issues that might arise during the rental event. An honorarium of $50 per event will be paid to offset travel costs. If you are interested in assisting the Parish with this position please contact Fr. Bo or Alex Schabel @ 770-908-3339.
- During the month of October, the Parish will be making a special "Harvest food bank collection." In recognition of the harvest season we are asking Parishioners to make a special effort to assist those less fortunate. Currently foodbanks require additional help as demands for their services continue to grow. These excessive demands are a result of not only economic hardship but also the continued war in Ukraine as well. Please consider making a monetary contribution or alternatively food donations can be added to the collection box in the church vestibule.

Saints of the Day (from OCA.ORG)

Apostle James, son of Alphaeus

Holy Apostle James the son of Alphaeus one of the Twelve Apostles, was the brother of the holy Evangelist Matthew. He heard the Lord's words and witnessed His miracles. After the Descent of the Holy Spirit, the Apostle James Alphaeus and the Apostle Andrew the First-Called (November 30), made missionary journeys preaching in Judea, Edessa, Gaza, Eleutheropolis, proclaiming the Gospel, healing all sorts of sickness and disease, and converting many to the path of salvation. Saint James finished his apostolic work in the Egyptian city of Ostrachina, where he was crucified by the pagans.

- Next Sunday, October 16th, we Welcome Deacon François to celebrate the Divine Liturgy with us. Deacon François was ordained in our Eparchy at The Exaltation of the Holy Cross Parish in September.

Who is Deacon François?

Bishop David, having consulted with the Sacred Orders and Ministries Commission, has blessed the petition of Sub-deacon François Provençal for Diaconal order. Sub-deacon François was ordained to the diaconate on Sunday, Sept 11th 2022, at the Exaltation of Holy Cross Parish during Praznik. Deacon François' motivation for his vocation is to help out people journey in their faith and to convey to them the faith experience of Christ the servant. He also became a deacon to enable a fuller experience of the beauty of the Divine Liturgy where the deacon plays an important role. A significant and important aspect of becoming a deacon for him was the yearlong internship at his parish, Exaltation of Holy Cross in Edmonton.

Deacon François has always been interested in helping people and in the liturgy. Theology is something that has always fascinated him. Over the years of his life, he was drawn into the beautiful Byzantine liturgy. This prompted him to ask to transfer to the UGCC and study further at the Sheptytsky Institute. His interest in Eastern languages and culture (Serbo-Croat, Russian, and Ukrainian) has been steady since he was deployed with NATO in Ex-Yugoslavia with the Canadian military in 1999.

Deacon François was born and raised in a small community, Plessisville, on the south shore of St-Lawrence river between Quebec City and Montreal. His first language is French. He entered Quebec City major seminary in 1988 and discerned a vocation call for 4 years, until 1992, and got his undergrad in Theology at Laval University. In 1992/93 he got his teaching degree at Laval University. He was married in 1995 and worked as a High School teacher in the Quebec City region. He joined the Canadian Forces Reserve in 1995 and transferred to the Regular Forces in 1998 as a military chaplain (RC) Pastoral associate. During his first few years in the military, he completed a Master's degree in Theology at Laval University(1999). From 1998-2008, he worked as a military Chaplain, and from 2008-2018 as a Military Specialist. In 2013, he completed a Licentiate in Eastern Christian Studies at the Sheptytsky Institute in Ottawa. Over the span of his military career, he moved 8 times and lived in three provinces.

Deacon François encourages everyone to realize the important role of the diaconate as it brings the image of Christ servant to the Church and the world in a tangible manner through the ministry of Charity, Faith, and Liturgy.

Did you know that a number of Edmonton parishes hold morning Divine Liturgies during the week at 9:00 am? This is to accommodate parents with young children that would like to attend weekday services but are getting school aged children ready and off to school first thing in the morning, so early times are not possible for them. All Divine Liturgies will be either fully in English or Bilingual.

Tues: St. George, 11305 – 95 A St

Wed: Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 9003 – 153 Ave

Fri: Holy Eucharist, 6425-120 Ave - Following Divine Liturgy we will pray special prayers for our children.

Sat: St. Josaphat, 10825 – 97 St

Note * Although this initiative was undertaken at the request of parents with young families, of course, everyone is welcome to worship together!

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost. Octoechos Tone I. The Holy Apostle James, Son of Alphaeus

Troparion: Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans,* and soldiers guarded Your most pure body,* You arose, O Saviour, on the third day,* and gave life to the world.* And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life:* Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ!* Glory to Your kingdom!* Glory to Your saving plan,* O only Lover of mankind.

Troparion: Holy apostle James, intercede with the merciful God* to grant to our souls* forgiveness of sins.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: You arose in glory from the tomb* and with Yourself You raise the world.* All humanity acclaims You as God.* and death has vanished.* Adam exults, O Master,* and Eve, redeemed from bondage now, cries out for joy:* “You are the One, O Christ, Who offer resurrection to all.”

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion: With praises let us all extol James as a herald of God;* he firmly planted the doctrines of wisdom in the souls of the godly.* For he stands before the Master’s throne of glory* and rejoices with all the angels* unceasingly praying for all of us.

Prokeimenon:

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

verse: Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous.

verse: Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

Epistle: 2 Corinthians 9:6-11

Brothers and Sisters, the point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, “He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.” He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us.

Alleluia verses:

God gives me vindication, and has subdued people under me.

Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever.

The heavens shall confess our wonders, O Lord, and Your truth in the church of the saints.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11; Luke 10:16-21 (NRSV)

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.

Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth,* and their word unto the ends of the world.*

Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

Are you looking for last week’s bulletin?

Well... Fr. Bo was on holiday, so there wasn’t one. Sorry. Hope you understand.
